ABOUT THE AWARDS

The Internal Communications and Engagement Awards highlights the impact internal communications has on a business, the role of the internal communicator within an organisation and the creative strategies developed to promote an engaged workforce.

The awards will celebrate achievement in internal communications, honouring companies that communicate effectively with internal stakeholders.

WHY ENTER?

This awards programme recognises impactful and wide-ranging examples of internal comms campaigns and projects. Winning an Internal Communications and Engagement Award helps set organisations apart from their competitors and provides the opportunity to engage internal teams.

Putting your organisation forward offers a chance to:

- Reflect and evaluate – learn about your projects and compare them against peers
- Engage stakeholders – commend your internal teams and recognise their work at a prestigious awards ceremony in June 2023
- Evidence excellence – to win or to be shortlisted, shows that you have reached the very highest standard, as judged by leading experts

If shortlisted, you'll be joining an illustrious roll call of past winners. Winning can be a great boost to team morale, as efforts and hard work have been recognised and benchmarked in a competitive field.

WRITING YOUR ENTRY

There are no boundaries on the design, branding or format of the entry. The submission can be formatted portrait or landscape. Feel free to include the Internal Communications and Engagement Awards branding.

Judges often prefer entries that don't have too much text on one page as it makes them easier to read. You may wish add images throughout the submission to add to the entry narrative.

The most successful entries have a clear narrative and detail SMART objectives. They include details of why the work was carried out, how the strategy was developed and implemented, and how the results fit the initial objectives.

For the main awards categories, please prepare a single PDF document including:

1. Entry summary

2. Entry statement

A different format is required for the 'Best in sector' and CIPR categories. Please see pages 11, 12, 13 and 14 respectively, for the correct entry format and guidance

3. Supporting materials

Please ensure your file is no larger than 10MB.

For more information or guidance please email emma.macdonald@communicatemagazine.co.uk

WRITING YOUR ENTRY

Campaigns and communications, Process and Outputs and deliverables categories

1. Entry summary

Provide a short summary of 300 words that includes the following:

- About the organisation – introduce your organisation for the judges
- Entry synopsis – a short summary of the project or campaign
- Category entered and why the work fits into that category
- Industry context – what is the company's place within the market?
- Budget (optional – please mark confidential where necessary)

Note: Please remember if you are looking to enter the same campaign/project into multiple categories, we recommend you tailor your entry summary/statement for each category entered.

We advise that the submission includes a guide on the project brief, budget and time frame to help put the project into context for the judges.

Any organisation can enter the awards providing the strategy or execution was developed, launched or carried out between August 2021 and February 2023.

2. Entry statement

Write an entry statement of up to 700 words.

The statement should cover:

- Objective
- Research and planning
- Creativity and innovation
- Strategy and implementation
- Results

On the next page there are some key points on how to expand on each area. Judges will be referring to this criteria when reviewing the submissions.

Successful entries have a clear narrative and detail SMART objectives.

CRAFTING A SUCCESSFUL ENTRY

Objective

- What were the goals/targets?
- What did you want to achieve?
- Why were the objectives necessary?
- What prompted the project/campaign to be carried out?
- What was the brief? (optional)

Research and planning

- What research was conducted?
- How did it represent the target audience?
- Did the research expose any problems or challenges?
- Were changes needed to meet the objectives?

Strategy and implementation

- How was the research incorporated into the strategy?
- How did the project reach its target audience?
- How was the strategy implemented?
- Were there any unexpected problems or unforeseen circumstances?

Creativity and innovation

- How was the project/campaign innovative?
- What made the work stand out?
- How did the project/campaign creatively engage with the target audience?
- Were there any creative restrictions?
- How did you get around them?

Results

- How did you meet your objectives?
- Were there any unexpected outcomes?
- What was the ROI? (optional)
- Are you able to share any before and after metrics?
- Is there any evidence to support the outcomes?
- How was the project received internally?

Note: The judges often ask for evidence of how the goals were met. The best entries include the ROI and ROO. Statistical data can be included in the supporting materials.

3. Supporting materials

Please include a selection of supporting materials that strengthen your entry by providing evidence of your achievements. Materials should illustrate your work and aid the narrative of your entry statement. Please include materials that are directly relevant to the category. All supporting materials must be included in your entry PDF.

- Images illustrating the project or campaign
- Press coverage (up to five examples)
- Social coverage (up to five examples)
- Video (up to three minutes, please include a link rather than the video file within the entry PDF)
- Statistics: any relevant statistics (optional)
- Client feedback
- Testimonials

Note: Videos can be more than three minutes long if submitting for the 'Best use of video and animation' category. We do not accept video files and kindly ask that you provide a link and log in details where necessary. Please ensure there are no expiration dates on video links.

WRITING YOUR ENTRY

Best internal communications by sector

Please provide an 800 word entry statement. The judges want to discover how your organisation's internal communications stand out from your peers or other organisations in your sector. This is an opportunity for our judges to gain insight into the broad scope of work from the internal communications team.

Please consider the following areas in your submission:

Context

- Who is the organisation?
- What does the organisation do?
- Where does the organisation fit within its sector?

Areas for consideration

- Has anything happened which has affected or challenged the company?
- Sector challenges and the strategies implemented in response
- What are the organisation's areas of strength in internal communications?
- How has the organisation worked?
- A summary of the year's work
- What has been done to deliver outstanding engagement results? How has this been measured?

Supporting materials

Please include a selection of supporting materials that strengthen your entry by providing evidence. Materials should aid the narrative of your statement and can be:

- Images
- Video (up to three minutes, please include a link in the entry rather than sending the video file)
- Statistics and/or results
- Internal feedback
- Employee satisfaction scores
- Testimonials
